

Moran Marks National Day of Prayer

Attends Prayer Service in Washington, D.C.

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Congressman Jerry Moran today marked the 57th annual National Day of Prayer by participating in a prayer and worship service in Washington, D.C. Across the country, people of all faiths observed the National Day of Prayer by praying for the wellbeing of the United States and those in leadership roles.

"Whether in times of uncertainty, grief or joy, prayer has the power to comfort," Moran said. "Prayer has strengthened me many times as I have sought guidance as an elected official."

Congress declared the first Thursday in May as a National Day of Prayer in 1952. This year's theme was "Prayer! America's Strength and Shield."

###

